

Every time I saw Sabine, she was doing something thoughtful, caring and deeply intelligent, to help others and to advance the causes we all know we must support if we are to take responsibility for our privileged place on this beautiful planet. It was a privilege to know her.
Shirley Lewis - on Darug and Gundungurra country in Katoomba